

CALLED TO FREEDOM

Light-Life Movement Song of the Year 2019-2020

Music & Lyrics: Aleksandra & Krzysztof Rębacz

English version: Agata Jankowiak

scratch recording: guitar - Mariusz Skoraszewski, vocal - Urszula Szymańska

Chorus: Don't be afraid, Jesus, the Living God
is the Light in the darkness that covers the world
He breaks your chains, gives you power and strength
to help those who are lost in the dark.

1. He saves you in the sands of the deserts

Shows the way as the pillar of light

He leads you to his freedom and heaven

in communion with those who are free.

Chorus: Don't be afraid, Jesus, the Living God is the Light in the darkness that covers the world
He breaks your chains, gives you power and strength
to help those who are lost in the dark.

2. He feeds you with his Word like with manna

Gives his Body and his Holy Blood

So that truth is your guidepost for ever:

You are free in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Chorus: Don't be afraid, Jesus, the Living God
is the Light in the darkness that covers the world
He breaks your chains, gives you power and strength
to help those who are lost in the dark.

3. With his grace his Cross leads you to others:

you'll help those who lack freedom they need,

all your life you'll serve people who suffer,

be their guide like a pillar of light.

Chorus: Don't be afraid, Jesus, the Living God
is the Light in the darkness that covers the world
He breaks your chains, gives you power and strength
to help those who are lost in the dark. / x3
